

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS
NOT DESIGNATED FOR PUBLICATION
JUDGE KAREN R. BAKER

DIVISION I

CACR07-390

JOVAN LEWIS

JANUARY 16, 2008

	APPELLANT	APPEAL FROM THE CRITTENDEN COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT [NO. CR-03-570]
v.
STATE OF ARKANSAS
	APPELLEE	HONORABLE CINDY GRACE THYER, CIRCUIT JUDGE

AFFIRMED; MOTION TO BE RELIEVED
GRANTED

The Crittenden County Circuit Court sentenced appellant Jovan Lewis to six years in the Arkansas Department of Correction following the court's revocation of appellant's probation stemming from a guilty plea with respect to the charge of aggravated assault, Class D felony. The revocation was based on the trial court's determination that appellant had violated the terms of his probation by being in possession of a firearm; committing a terroristic act; failing to pay fines, costs, and fees; failing to report as directed; and failing to notify the sheriff's office and probation officer of a current address or employment.

Pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and Rule 4-3(j) of the Rules of the Arkansas Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, appellant's counsel has filed a motion to withdraw on grounds that the appeal is without merit. This motion is accompanied by an abstract and brief referring to everything in the record that might arguably support an appeal. The clerk of this court furnished appellant with a copy of his counsel's brief and notified him of his right to file a pro se brief within thirty days. Appellant filed a brief addressing issues that were either wholly outside the record, raised for the first time on appeal, or fully covered in his counsel's brief.

From our review of the record and the briefs presented to us, we find compliance with Rule 4-3(j), and that the appeal is without merit. Accordingly, counsel's motion to be relieved is granted and the order of revocation is affirmed.

Affirmed; Motion to be relieved granted.

PITTMAN, C.J., and GLADWIN, J., agree.
